SKIPPER'S SPY SIGNALS

Any secret agent needs a good team to support them on their missions.

Enlist some of your friends or family to become part of your secret-agent squad and teach them a set of special spy signals to use on missions.

You will need to come up with a hand-gesture or sign to be able to be able tell them:

- Come closer
- We've been spotted!
- Target is in sight
- Abort mission!
- Go!

Don't choose anything too obvious or your cover will be blown straight away!

Can you think of any other essential mission signals?
