

WHERE AM I?

The sweet smell of summer in bottles of protective white armour.

Excited, giggling children, playing on the rhythmical swings.

Squirrels chasing madly, across the grassy ocean.

A soft, tickling, summer breeze dancing up and down.

A sea of coloured hats and tops darting to and fro.

Bright tops, white tops, beat the mighty sunlight tops.

Children playing, sun hats swaying, sitting on the sand.

Water splashing, waves crashing, foaming, swirling, paddling fun.

Sun protection lotion, shady shelter, cooling ice cream, summer sun.

The great leafy swaying trees make shady shapes as I walk my hatted shadow along the path. Birds sing their summertime melodies and chatter of adventures to come. Twigs snap under my sandals as I run a summer chase race. Sun streaks through the interlaced leaves, making flecked patterns on my bright, white top. The soft feel of lotion on my skin reminds me of summer adventures.
