

The competition

Want to make a real difference?
Here's your chance.

Your mission: to create a poem or song that inspires your community to save water and protect our special wildlife. Let's make every drop count!

The prizes

If you win, you'll get:

Your song/poem used in a real Affinity Water Marketing campaign.

An exclusive visit from a wildlife expert who will lead an exciting wildlife workshop for your class.

How to enter:

1. Decide if you're working solo or with others
2. Get writing!
3. Publish your lyrics on the entry form
4. Don't forget to fill in your contact details
5. Send it back to us by [insert date]

The winning song...

- ★ Sends a Water Savers message.
Make your water saving tips loud and clear.
- ★ Is positive and inspiring.
Make people feel excited about saving water.
- ★ Is creative and fun.
Use your imagination! Your work should be catchy and fun to sing along to.

Duck's top tips

- ✓ Start with a simple idea.
Why does each drop count? Pick one idea and build your song around it.
- ✓ Keep it short and sweet.
A few verses and a catchy chorus is all you need!
- ✓ Have fun with words.
Use rhymes and add sounds like 'splash' or 'drip' (this is called onomatopoeia!).

You can enter by asking your teacher or parent/ guardian to help you fill in the entry form and scan or send your poster to competitions@nationalschoolpartnership.com.

Alternatively you can send your poster via post to:

We are Futures, Affinity Water Competition, 1 Paris Garden, SE1 8ND, London

For full terms and conditions please visit:

<https://nationalschoolpartnership.com/affinitywatercompetition>

