

Meet Aimee...

Aimee is 18 and lives a pretty comfortable life. She plays netball on Saturdays and loves shopping, listening to music and hanging out with her friends.

Although she gets a pretty generous weekly allowance, it tends to 'disappear' on clothes, iTunes and going out...so her parents still buy most of her possessions and pay her smartphone and tablet bills.

Aimee isn't sure what she wants to do for a career yet, but she knows she'd like to travel and see the world in the near future.

Meet Ivan...

Ivan is about to turn 18 and is working towards his A Levels and determined to do his best. His family doesn't have a lot of money, but he's ambitious and wants a career that pays well. He's aiming to do a Law degree at a good university if he can get the grades.

Ivan has a part-time job at a local fast food restaurant and he's saving almost all his money to buy his own wheels – he's sick of catching buses everywhere!

Meet Chandni...

Chandni is about to start university to study Economics. She is going to live at home initially and help her parents out with some of the household costs, but she'd really like to own her own flat one day.
